SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

Word has reached Salt Lake of the murder of Con. Ryan, a farmer, near Soldier, Idaho. He was engaged in hauling timber from the region north hauling timber from the region north of the Camas prairie, and was evidently shot from ambush as he sat upon a load of wood. The body did not fall from the wagon, and the team returned home, carrying the remains to the very deer of the family. Ryan is said to have had some trouble with certain persons over water rights, and it is believed that that fact is responsible for his death. The dead man was about 50 years of age, and is survived by a widow and three children.

SAW BALLOON ALIGHT.

Mrs. Ned Royle Vividly Describer Event to Salt Lake Friend.

In a letter to a Salt Lake friend, Mrs. Ned Royle vividly and interestingly describes the alighting of the priez winning balloon in the recent in ernational nerial contest, It was the ternational aerial contest, it was the Pommern, owned and manipulated by Germans, which, after traveling 800 miles, came down near Avon-by-the-Sea, where Mrs. Royle's letter was dated. Mrs. Royle's communication reads in part as follows:

"Imagaine the excitement in this household when one of the St. Louis balloons came sailing along and alignted about a quarter of a mile from our place. We did not have the automobile at the door or we might have had the good fortune to see the men as they actually reached Mother Earth, but we were able to get there pretty soon. The balloon was like a huge mustard plaster (it is that color) on the short bushes in a vacant field, it would have been possible for them to have gone about 5,000 yards further, but they were afraid of being blown into the sea, the wind having changed so it was taking them directly there.

up and put into a big canvas cover, which took several hours. It took several hours before he could start. In the first place, they had to lift it from the scraggy bushes into the small road here. The small boys had plenty of fan, Although it was apparently flat, in reality it had quite a lot of gas in it. They dattened it as well as they could and then rolled from the two sides to the middle. You can imagine they had plenty of helpers. When it was rolled it looked like a huge yellow snake in the road. The small boys were told to roil on it. small boys were told to roll on it.

NOT INDIANS' BONES.

Walter E. Duke Claims Remains Found Are Those of Pennys.

Walter E. Duke, who was placed in charge of the bones supposed to be those of Ezra and George Penny, who were murdered in the Wah Wah hills of Millard county, has investigated the matter to its most minute points and has declared that he bones are those of the father and son who have been lost for eight years. Officers are on the way the Miliard county courts.

Mr. Duke declares that there is no truth in the statement that the bones are those of Indians, as was the finding of the coroner's jury at Frisco.
